

Air1 is a positive alternative to the amoral programming being broadcast over many stations today. Many people would lose their inspiration if this station were to be replaced and even more people would stop tuning in to anything at all. In today's world of killings, sexual abuses, etc. Air1 brings to the airwaves a message of hope that will get us all through these sad times. Please, do not take away our station!!!